Eastbourne Borough Council takes its obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 seriously and will not disclose personal information to any unauthorised person. The authority is under a duty to protect the public funds it administers and will not disclose personal information to any organization outside the council except where necessary for the prevention and detection of fraud or if required to do so by law.

The Council will use the personal information it collects to populate our Customer Relationship Management System (CRM). This system enables the council to provide a more efficient and streamlined service to you.

The Council may share your information with, and obtain information about you from, other organisations to make sure the information is accurate, to prevent or detect crime; and/or to protect public funds. These other organisations may include other departments within the Council, Government departments and/or other local authorities.
