

Lewes District Council

Your quick guide to local business support

It is a priority for Lewes District Council to support and grow entrepreneurs and businesses. The Council funds and works in partnership with a number of business support services so residents and businesses have access to free expert advice.

If you run a business locally, the featured business support services and initiatives can help you during these difficult trading times.

LEAP business support services

Funded by Lewes District Council and delivered by Edeal, every business in the District has access to confidential and one-to-one Business Counselling and Business Review sessions with a qualified business advisor. You will be matched with an expert based on your area of need.

Edeal also offers free social media training, leadership and management support and is hosting a series of bitesize webinars in a range of business support areas.

Business East Sussex

Business East Sussex is a free and impartial government funded business support service.

During the current Covid-19 period, the team can help you navigate through the range of measures announced by Government, and help you find what you may be eligible for.

A business advisor will also be able to help you on a one to one basis and signpost you to other business support services including access to funding and finance.
