Notes for Guidance

1. Describe the premises. For example the type of premises it is, its general situation and layout and any other information which would be relevant to the licensing objectives.
2. The application form must be signed.
3. An applicant's agent (for example solicitor) may sign the form on their behalf provided that they have actual authority to do so.
4. Where there is more than one applicant, both applicants or their respective agents must sign the application form.
5. This is the address which we shall use to correspond with you about this application.

Before completing this form you should read our step by step guidance booklet 'The new licensing system: a guide to the changes' available from our offices or to download from our website (see top of page 1), which includes addresses to send copies of this form. Incomplete or incorrect applications will be returned and will delay issuing your licence
